The 137 Request Stops in Great Britain

* Stations with special rules

Bearley / Claverdon
All Chiltern Railway services stop at this station, it is the one early morning West Midlands Railway service that only stops upon request.

Ardlui / Roy Bridge
All local Scotrail services stop at Ardlui and Roy Bridge but the Caledonian Sleeper service only stops upon request.

Builth Road
During the Royal Welsh Show in July of every year, extra services run to Builth Road. These always stop, and are not request services.

Menheniot
There is one early morning train to London that is compulsory and does not stop by request. All other services stop only by request.

New Clee
National Rail list New Clee as a request stop, but with summer Sunday trains always stopping. In the Northern timetable, this station has the request "x" marked against it at all times.

One direction only request stops
Some stations are request stops in one direction only due to a level crossing at that station - when the train stops at these stations for the crew to manually operate the crossing, it is not a request stop in that direction. If the station is after the level crossing, it is a request stop.

Stations that are request stops in the Southbound direction only
Ammanford, Bucknall, Dolau, Llanwrda, Llangadog, Llandybie.

Stations that are request stops in the Northbound direction only
Ffairfach, Tal-y-Cafn.
